

LGT

FINANCIAL FOCUS

Lane Gorman Trubitt, L.L.P.
Accountants & Advisors

Your Accounting for a New Economy

Not-For-Profit Experience:

Right Here In Your Back Yard!

You don't have to go far to find a CPA firm committed to the highly specialized Not-For-Profit business sector. Lane Gorman Trubitt, L.L.P., one of the largest CPA firms headquartered in the Southwest, and based right here in Dallas has a dedicated Not-For-Profit niche focused solely on providing the highest quality service to this important segment of the community.

Allow us to introduce three members of the LGT Not-For-Profit Niche!

Dawn Möeder, Partner – Dawn has been with LGT since 1999 and possesses more than twelve years of public accounting experience, particularly in the not-for-profit realm. She was awarded both a Bachelors in Economics with Accountancy and a Masters in Economics and Finance from the Loughborough University of Technology in Leicestershire, England. She is an active member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Dallas Chapter of Texas Society of CPAs (TSCPA).

Neely Duncan, Manager – Neely served four years in the United States Navy and one as a State Auditor for Virginia. She has in excess of seven years of not-for-profit auditing experience. She received her Bachelors in Accounting from Old Dominion University and is a board member of the Texas Society of CPAs (TSCPA), Association for Independent Living, as well as the Arthritis Foundation. In addition, she has remained an active member in the Dallas Society of CPAs, Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, American Institute of CPAs, and is the 2007 Recipient of the “Young CPA of the Year” award from the Dallas CPA Society.

Anna Sosolik, Manager – Anna joined LGT in 2003 and to date has more than seven years of public accounting experience. In addition she has more than four and a half years of experience focused specifically on Tax. Her responsibilities include the preparation of the annual Form 990 filings.

With the not-for-profit experience gathered at LGT Why would you consider any other Firm? Contact us TODAY by calling (214) 871-7500 for a free preliminary consultation and see how a Firm with specialized Not-For-Profit Niche can benefit you!